

Dr. Julie Sung-Sin Cutler, DMD

Dr. Julie Cutler received her Doctor of Dental Medicine (DMD) from Oregon Health Sciences University: School of Dentistry in July of 1997.

After completing dental school, Dr. Cutler was granted a scholarship with the United States Air Force where she served as a rank of Captain. In 1999, she won Company Grade Officer of the Year at Luke Air Force Base and Federal Employee of the Year in the state of Arizona. In 2001, she was honorably discharged from the United States Air Force as a Major. She has served as the board appointed Dental Consultant for the Arizona Board of Dental Examiners since 2002 and is a member of the American Dental Association (ADA).

Dr. Cutler enjoys spending some of her personal time volunteering her dentistry skills to those in need. She has been volunteering at the local Neighborhood Christian Clinic since 1998. She has also volunteered overseas in Ethiopia and India performing dentistry for some of the most remote areas of the world since 1997.

When not practicing dentistry, Dr. Cutler enjoys spending time with family including her husband of 16+ years and her three children. They enjoy camping and other outdoor activities including running with their family dog, Tobi. What you may not know about Dr. Cutler is that she holds a Black Belt in Kung Fu. She was considered the first female born in Korea to receive a Black Belt at the Shaolin Temple in China in 2013. She actively pursues advancement within the Black Belt ranks, holds an instructor status, and is actively pursuing kickboxing as a hobby.

Dr. Cutler has practiced at PERFECT TEETH™ for more than 13 years with an experienced and caring support staff. She is grateful for a wonderful group of patients that have put faith and trust in her care. She has been described as not only an honest, ethical, and dependable dentist, but most of all an “all around good friend”.
