

Robert D. Lefkowitz, DDS

Dr. Robert Lefkowitz received his undergraduate education in Pre-Medicine at Penn State University where he graduated with high distinction in 1979. He entered dental school at Temple University where he received his Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS) in 1983.

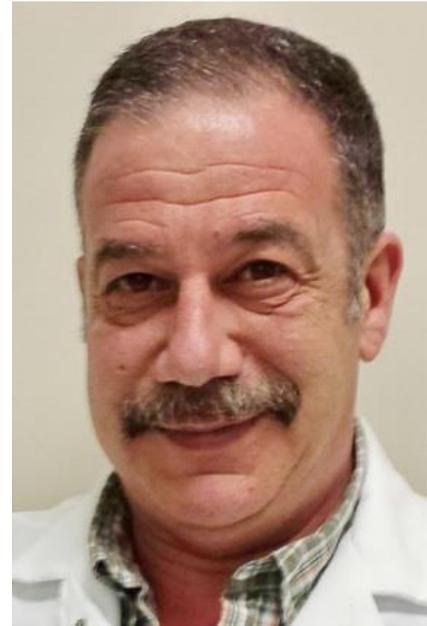

After completion of dental school, Dr. Lefkowitz became the first Temple Dental School graduate in 10 years to be accepted into the Albert Einstein Medical Center, Philadelphia, PA General Residency Program where he was chief resident.

After his residency, he entered private practice in Glassboro, NJ where he was the founder, owner, and president of the Glassboro Dental Health Center until October, 2002. Dr. Lefkowitz then entered the Air Force in January 2003 and was promoted to Lieutenant-Colonel later that same year. During his time in the Air Force he received the Meritorious Service Medal which is proudly displayed in the practice. He also successfully earned the title “Advanced Clinical Dentist” as well as “Master Clinician”.

Before joining PERFECT TEETH™, Dr. Lefkowitz served as Chief of Dental Services at Buckley Air Force Base in Colorado where he was responsible for the comprehensive oral health care for active duty and activated Total Force as well as worldwide dental readiness of over 2,700 Air Force Space Command beneficiaries. After retiring from the Air Force he joined PERFECT TEETH™ in 2013.

When not practicing dentistry, Dr. Lefkowitz enjoys spending his time with his family. He also enjoys cooking/fine dining, baseball, computers and music. What you may not know about Dr. Lefkowitz is that he is an accomplished classical pianist and recorded his first CD in 2002.

We cannot wait for you to meet Dr. Robert Lefkowitz!
