

Kendra Ousley, DMD

Dr. Ousley first developed her passion for dentistry at the age of 13 when she worked for her family dentist throughout high school. After high school, she completed her undergraduate education at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville. She went on to complete dental school at Southern Illinois University school of Dental Medicine where she received her Doctor of Dental Medicine (DMD).

Dr. Ousley is a member of multiple professional organizations including the American Dental Association, the Colorado Dental Association, the Metro Denver Dental Society, and the Delta Sigma Delta Dental Fraternity. She enjoys volunteering her dentistry skills. She is a volunteer for the Give Kids a Smile organization and is also an annual volunteer for the Mission of Mercy.

What is Dr. Ousley's practice philosophy? "I treat every single patient as I would want to be treated. This involves providing the most efficient and quality care possible. I strive to create a warm and friendly atmosphere so that my patients gain a sense of comfort and trust. I truly have a passion to make a positive difference in my patients' lives through their smile."

When not practicing dentistry, she enjoys spending her time with family and friends. She enjoys watching basketball and boxing and also enjoys playing volleyball and biking. Some of her other hobbies include baking, music, movies and theater.
