

Dallin R. Snow, DMD

Dr. Dallin Snow received his Bachelor's Degree in Nutritional Science from Brigham Young University. Upon graduation he received a fellowship to complete his Master's Degree at Utah State University in Nutrition Science. He then went on to receive his Doctor of Dental Medicine (DMD) from Midwestern University-Arizona (MWU).

While in dental school, Dr. Snow participated in a study that received honors as at the MWU College of Dental Medicine-Arizona student research competition. He also received the honor of presenting at the 2012 American Dental Association annual meeting. During Dental school and throughout his professional career, he has been recognized for his research in numerous publications and speaking opportunities.

Dr. Snow is a member of multiple professional organizations including the American Dental Association, the Arizona Dental Association, the Academy of General Dentistry as well as the Academy of LDS Dentists. Dr. Snow recently joined PERFECT TEETH™ and has truly embraced the “Patients First” philosophy. “I want to help each patient spend the least amount of time for the rest of their life in the dental chair by helping them achieve oral health and then helping them maintain that health.”

When not practicing dentistry, Dr. Snow enjoys spending time with his wife and three children. They love spending time in the Arizona heat camping, playing at the park and playing basketball. What you may not know about Dr. Snow is that he spent two years before college in Argentina where he learned to speak Spanish fluently.

We cannot wait for you to meet Dr. Dallin R. Snow!
