

Eugene J. Kim, DDS

Oral Surgeon

We are excited to introduce you to our Oral Surgeon, Dr. Eugene J. Kim!

Dr. Kim received his undergraduate degree in Biology from Pacific Union College where he graduated Magna Cum Laude. He then went on to receive his Doctor of Dental Surgery Degree (DDS) from Loma Linda University School of Dentistry in Loma Linda, CA.

Dr. Kim spent five years as a Dental Director at the Community Health Center, Clinica Campesina, taking care of underprivileged patients. He then went on to spend four years completing his Oral and Maxillofacial surgery Residency.

Dr. Kim is excited to be working for PERFECT TEETH and he truly embraces the "Patients First" philosophy. "It is a real honor and privilege to take care of my patients. I am so happy that I get the opportunity to do so on a daily basis. I love taking care of my patients whether it is helping ease their pain or helping them to restore their dental health so they can enjoy the food they love and regain confidence through their new smile."

When not practicing dentistry, Dr. Kim enjoys living life to the fullest. He enjoys spending time with his family including his two daughters. They take time to enjoying all that Colorado has to offer including going to the zoo and visiting parks. In his spare time he also enjoys playing golf and softball.

We cannot wait for you and your family to meet Dr. Eugene Kim!
