

Dino Drummer, DDS

Dr. Dino Drummer received his undergraduate degree from the University of LaVerne in California in May of 1993. He went on to complete dental school at The University of Missouri in Kansas City where he received his Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS) in May of 2000. During his time in dental school he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Dr. Drummer is currently a member of the American Dental Association. He has been practicing general dentistry for more than 14 years. Before he joined PERFECT TEETH™, he practiced dentistry at Dental Village, Kool Smiles, and up until October 2013, he owned and operated a private practice for seven years.

What is Dr. Drummer's practice philosophy? "Patient care is my top priority. I am an easy going, laid back person who is also a perfectionist, especially when it comes to my work." Dr. Drummer will care for patients ages 4-years-old and up and he also enjoys doing cosmetic dentistry.

When not practicing dentistry, Dr. Drummer enjoys spending his time with family and friends, especially when they have barbeque parties and family outings. What you may not know about Dr. Drummer is that he enjoys playing the bass guitar and keyboards. He also loves to go to the movies and attend concerts when he can.

We cannot wait for you to meet Dr. Drummer in person!
