

Edward Lee, DDS

Dr. Edward Lee was born in Seoul, South Korea before moving to Colorado at a young age. He has lived most of his adult years in Ann Arbor, Michigan where he pursued his academics. He received his undergraduate degree in English from the University of Michigan. He also attended the University of Colorado as well as California Berkeley before making the decision to return to the University of Michigan to complete dental school where he received his Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS).

Dr. Lee is a member of multiple organizations including the American Dental Association, the Academy of General Dentistry, the Colorado Dental Association and the Metro Denver Dental Society. He is dedicated and passionate about providing his patients with the highest level of dental care. What is his practice philosophy? “I understand that every patient has a story, therefore I make it my priority to listen and learn from each of my patients to ensure their needs and expectations are met.”

When not practicing dentistry, Dr. Lee enjoys spending his time playing the guitar, attending sporting events, playing golf, and spending time outdoors with family and friends. What makes Dr. Lee smile? Spending time eating with family and good friends!
